

5.4.1. There is a registered Alumni Association that contributes significantly to the development of the institution through financial and/or other support services.